Are you looking for ways to help students become critical readers and dynamic writers and thinkers?

In these Institutes you will:

- Examine core workshop beliefs.
- Develop a clear vision of what a powerful workshop looks like.
- Learn and practice evidence-based instructional strategies.
- Take away tools and resources for planning and implementation.

Kate Roberts, TCWRP consultant and co-author of DIY Literacy, will kick of each 3-day institute with a full-day session.

EASTCONN literacy consultants, Linda Kauffmann and Erin Powers-Bigler, will build on Kate's work on days 2 and 3 by focusing on:

- Developing and delivering effective mini-lessons.
- Using conferring to lift the level of student work.
- "Unpacking" the units of study.
