

Do thoughts like these prevent you from finding a brighter future?

“I would like to go to college but I can’t afford it.”

“I don’t have the time to go to college.”

“I’m too old for college.”

“I’ve never been the type to go to college.”

“I have no idea what I want to study or what kind of job I want.”

“I have kids so I can’t go to college.”

You are not alone. Many college students felt this same way. The truth is many successful college graduates have been right where you are now. These thoughts you have are not barriers to going to college.

Come in and talk with a Transitions coach and find out how, given your commitment of effort, college CAN be for YOU!

EASTCONN—Where Learning Comes to Life

Created in 1980 under Connecticut General Statute 10-66a, EASTCONN is a public, non-profit, regional educational service center. EASTCONN exists to provide high-quality, competitively priced educational and related services to 36 member Boards of Education and the 33 communities they serve in northeastern Connecticut. We are governed by a Board of Directors, who are members of locally elected Boards of Education. Our funding comes from the fees we charge for our services, supplemented by competitively awarded grants and contracts.

For more information about EASTCONN and its programs and services, please visit our Web site, www.eastconn.org, or call EASTCONN’s Communications Department at 860-455-0707.

It is the policy of EASTCONN that no person shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be discriminated against under any program because of race, color, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, genetic information, gender identity or expression, veteran status, disability or any other classification protected by state or federal law.

EASTCONN is in compliance with Connecticut General Statutes Sec. 10-73 (a) (c) and does not charge a fee for any textbooks or materials used in the mandated program areas. Individuals with a disability who require an accommodation in order to participate in any class, program, activity, or when taking the GED exam, please contact Melanie Rovero, mrovero@eastconn.org, 860-779-3770.

Our goal is to help students and graduates successfully move into a variety of post-secondary educational or training programs. Transitions Coaches are available to help students navigate the entire process of taking their next step. Whether it is higher education, job training or employment, Transitions Coaches are there to help you find a path that will lead to even greater achievement and earning potential.

EASTCONN Transitions is free of charge to all Adult Education students and graduates. Transition planning can begin long before students graduate as well as long after they graduate. Students are welcome to return to EASTCONN at any time to utilize Transitions.

This program will assist Adult Education students and graduates who want to attend training programs and colleges anywhere in the country, not just Connecticut.
